6 Reasons Why You Should Invest in this Programme

1

EVERTHING STARTS TO MAKE SENSE: There are moments when we second guess ourselves because of self-doubt and worry about validation from others. There will be so many 'aha' moments during the training, such as... "Now I know why I behave that way..."

2

DEALING WITH COLOURFUL PERSONALITIES: We lose our mind sometimes trying to figure people out! "Why do they behave like this?" You will now understand their perspectives better and learn to manage those relationships better.

3

TRIPLE CERTIFICATION: We are one of the very few training providers in Malaysia who are certified to conduct the TRIPLE certification programme by the American Board of NLP (ABNLP), which makes your learning complete and comprehensive.

4

PERSONALISED OUTCOMES: We will curate the outcomes of this programme to suit you and your objectives. Sincere attention is given to each participant so they receive a substantial return on investment.

5

CONTINUOUS SUPPORT GROUP: Our journey with you is for LIFE. The end of this training is the beginning of our support system that offers rock-solid guidance as and when you need it. The bond you create with your coursemates stretches for years to come and maybe forever and ever.

6

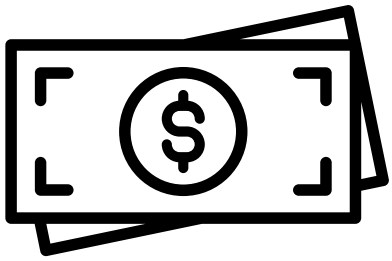

SET UP A SIDE HUSTLE / CAREER PATH AS A COACH: You will leave this programme certified as a Coach that allows you to empower others to achieve their goals and dreams too. Whether you choose to be a Coach or not, you will be able to empower others who need it.

Hands-On Training Activities

Participants are encouraged to think, expand their thoughts, create new ideas and step out of their comfort zones. In their workshops, everyone has a voice and discovers new dimensions of themselves. There is never a dull moment in The Box's certification programmes. Every primary concept is immediately supplemented with a hands-on activity, discussion, presentation or quiz. This is to ensure that the participants leave the training with a clear idea on what they need to do when they are in the real world as Certified Practitioners & Coaches.

Training Style

Anyone who is familiar with the trainers will know that training is not just another job for them- it's their passion. Their trainings are focused on creating a purposeful impact & flavoured with sensible humour. They also relate to their audience well, by using current and relevant case scenarios. After every break, participants are given an opportunity to engage in endorphin and adrenaline-stimulating activities to ensure high concentration levels throughout the training.
